THE FUTURE, THE BENEFITS & OPPORTUNITIES OF WORKFORCE FLEXIBILITY – lunch workshop

Adopting flexibility in the workplace can provide massive benefits to talent attraction and retention, an important concern for all diverse organisations regardless of industry, size or location.

In this workshop learn what the future holds and why flexibility and telework is predicted to be one of the “biggest structural changes to the labour market this decade!”

Hear from speakers at three diverse organisations who were able to bridge the gap between policy and practice to deliver great benefits to both the organisations and the individuals. See why flexibility assists organisations to become an employer of choice, reduces overheads and can increase productivity.
