

Executive Careering series.

Get on Board! Realising your board potential.

This workshop is designed for senior executives seeking to broaden their career with non-executive director positions. The workshop will also enable the attendees to network with other likeminded successful professionals.

Selection Partners presents three notable board members who will share their knowledge and expertise to help you develop in your career.

Workshop content includes;

- How to position yourself for Non-Executive Director positions.
- The change in board diversity, the requirement for gender balance.
- How to become visible to organisations requiring non-exec board positions.
- Breaking the stereotype. Younger, culturally diverse boards for the future.
- If you have political persuasions; how to enter the Government sphere.

About the presenters

Alan Castleman Chairman at The Board Advisory Group, has been a professional company chairman, director and board advisor over the last 20 years. He now advises companies, chairmen and directors on board related matters, board structure, succession planning, recruitment of directors, board reviews and performance, remuneration advice, mentoring.

Kirsten Mander Director, group executive and lawyer, with substantial broad experience both within Australia and internationally. Over 10 years' experience as a director and over 10 years experience as a senior executive for major Australian companies, working closely with their boards. Kirsten's directorships include Non-Executive Director of the International Women's Development Agency.

Cr Geoff Lake is the Mayor of the City of Monash, and during his time on Council, Geoff has played a prominent role at the local, state and national levels - including as a Board member for many Government, and Non-Government Boards. In 2002 aged 22, Geoff became the youngest person ever to be a Mayor in Victoria when he was elected Mayor of the City of Monash.

Date: Tuesday 25th March 2014

Where: Graduate House, Melbourne University,
220 Leicester Street, Carlton

Time: 7.00am, for a sharp 7.20 start – 9.30am

Fee: At our cost

This informal breakfast seminar is by invite only. Numbers are strictly limited to allow for questions and comfortable group interaction.

RSVP your confirmation to june@selectionpartners.com.au or call on 03-9832-8100.